

Please do not repeal the cross-ownership ban. News, which should be at the service of the public interest, is becoming nothing more than a money-making enterprise. Repealing the ban will only exacerbate the situation by further limiting free press and responsible, quality print journalism. Now more than ever we need a free flow of knowledge in this country! Maintain the ban!